To Whom it May Concern

Dear Sir/Madam,

Priscilla was an intern with ELLE Singapore for six months in 2017, and in the short period of time, managed to prove herself to be quite an asset to the team. While most interns, understandably, struggle with the workload and steep learning curve, Priscilla picked up the necessary skills faster than most. She's also displayed a writing flair that has potential for further development, while her filming and video editing skills were both impressive. In the latter, it's obvious that she has an eye for conceptualization and putting together a video in a clear, concise (and aesthetically pleasing) manner. Her positive, can-do attitude and ability to adhere to deadlines despite the heavy workload was also much appreciated by the team.

Priscilla has definitely been one of ELLE's better interns, and I'm sure she will continue to perform well in whatever she chooses to do in the future.

I am happy to provide further information if required. Thank you.

Regards,
